Bid Opening At Noon Today

Bids will be opened early this afternoon, in the town manager's office, for the new elementary school on Lovejoy rd.

The general contractors had one week to complete their bids, following last Thursday's opening of sub-contracts on the project.

The over-all total of the lowest bids on sub-contracts is $362,199 - considerably less than had been estimated by the architects. The general contractors take various bids from sub-contractors and use them in their over-all price for the construction project.

The bids received a week ago: Waterproofing, dampproofing and caulking: A. Belanger and Sons, Cambridge, $3,495; Western Waterproofing Co. of Boston, $3,630; Gath Ross Co., Cambridge, $4,690;

Playground Youngsters Will Enter Swimming Meet

A playground swimming meet scheduled for this afternoon at Pomp's Pond offers plenty of fun and keen competition for youngsters from 8-16.

The 2:30 p.m. event will wind up with a presentation of a trophy for the playground whose entrants have piled up the most points. Individual ribbons will be awarded for first, second and third places.

The rules of the meet specify that children wishing to enter the meet must sign up at a playground; and they must not violate the age requirements for any special event. No more than three entries will be accepted for each event from each playground.

A flutter board race will feature boys and girls of eight and nine years; and separate free-style races will be held for boys and girls between 10 and 12. Trials and finals will be held where necessary.

Boys under 16 may enter a free-style race, and a similar event will be held for girls.

First place wins five points, second place earns three points and one point is awarded for a third.

Anxious Taxpayers To Receive Their Bills

The first lot of real estate tax bills are being mailed this mid-week, to all those taxpayers whose names start with the letter "A".

The bills will be mailed according to the alphabetical format until they are completed. Tax Collector James Christie says this should be accomplished within 10 days or two weeks.

Although the mailing of this year's bills has been later than in some years past, a new addressograph system has been installed that will allow more prompt mailings in the future.

The combination of this system and the National Cash Register machinery has made it possible to quickly figure out the bills.

In connection with the somewhat overdue mailings, town hall officials have expressed surprise at the number of taxpayers who have called to find out when their tax bills will arrive.

Said one: "They seem unusually anxious to get a bill!"

When the bills have been mailed and paid, town records indicate that $2,191,723 will have been raised through the real estate tax. The total amount to be raised by taxation comes to $2,307,946 - the difference being made up in personal property and poll taxes.

Contractor Warned To Keep Gravel In Town

Algae Is The Villain

Anabeana and asterionela. They're the villains in the latest foul-tasting water problem, which has some people gagging and many others drinking but complaining.

Water Supt. Donald Bassett said these two algae are growing profusely in Haggett's Pond - and identified Anabeana as a real top-notch algae of the bad-tasting variety.

Noting, as has been explained many times before, that the algae won't hurt anyone, Mr. Bassett said treatment of the Pond for this invasion of microscopic organisms is being undertaken with the supervision of the state.

The algae grow profusely in warm, humid weather, as those who drank the water a year ago can recall. At that time, other algae were to blame for the taste.

The DeMatteo Construction Co. will receive a double-barreled warning this week from the Selectmen.

The Board agreed Monday night to withhold any more gravel pit permits until the firm has made use of some that have been issued for Route 495 construction. The Board made it clear that the contractor would have difficulty with future permits if the specifications agreed to on those already issued are not met fully.

Members of the Board also voted to send the firm a letter stating that any use of Andover gravel outside of the community will bring about an automatic shut-down.

Selectman William Stewart told his colleagues that he understands the DeMatteo firm has received another bid award out of town, and warned that some Andover gravel might be used on the latter project.

Noting that there is sufficient difficulty in finding suitable gravel pit locations for the work scheduled here so far, the Board members agreed that none should be taken

Children Active In Many Events

Interest continued this week in the various playground special events.

A parade on wheels was held at Shawshen, with these results: Pamela Scherer, gold ribbon; most original, Susan Ledbetter, Karen Glennon, Edward Simpson; prettiest, Mary Ellen Clukey, Paula Nigrelli and Patricia Burke.

Largest, Pamela Scherer, Gary Gulesian, Ruth Wesolowski, Mary Frances Wesolowski and Beth Denett; four-wheel bikes, prettiest, Nina Nicolosi, Richard McGovern, Beverly Simpson; smallest, Mimi Conley, Joseph Demanche, Gregory Freije, Ellen McGovern and Jeffrey Bond; most colorful, Rosemary Burns, Nancy Simpson and Susan Sodowski.

The registration to date at Shawshen is 576.

Camp Harold Parker Concludes Season

Camp Harold Parker, the day camp operated by the Council for Greater Boston Camp Fire Girls, concluded a very busy season last Thursday by holding a Grand Council Fire.

The camp is jointly sponsored by the Merrimack Valley, Bear Hill, and North Reading Districts and many volunteers from the various towns in the districts assisted by Mrs. Ruth Reiting, camp director, during the four-week season.

The final week was marked by several special events, such as the Program Aide cook-out Aug. 1.

The program aides are teen-age girls who unselfishly donate part of their summer vacation period to Camp Fire Girls by actively assisting the unit leaders with the many responsibilities necessitated by a day camping program. Re-

Town To Be Blacked Out - By Total Lunar Eclipse

The outstanding sky event for New Englanders this year will take place Friday, Aug. 25. That night they'll have a chance to see one of nature's most spectacular heavenly displays - an eclipse of the moon.

The last total eclipse of the moon visible from here in New England occurred March 13, 1960, according to the Charles Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science. Those who tried to watch it may remember freezing temperatures and a few not-too-satisfactory peeks through a thick cloud layer and falling snowflakes.

The Aug. 25 eclipse will be almost (99%), but not quite, total. Even when the moon is as far as it will get into the earth's shadow, there will still be visible a very tiny crescent, brightly lighted.

While lunar eclipses are not rare events, occurring at least twice yearly according to the Planetarium, they are not always visible from this area. Whenever one can be seen here it is worth staying up for, since a lunar eclipse is counted among the most imposing of celestial displays.

This one won't keep watchers up too late. Prime viewing hours will be between 9 p.m. and 1 a.m., with the moment of mid-eclipse at 11:09.

Volunteers Help Teach Swimming

Between 25 and 30 residents of the town have been donating their services at Pomp's Pond daily, assisting the staff in the instructional program.

Donald D. Dunn, the supervisor, estimates that some 10,000 lessons have been given during the first six weeks of the season, despite the cool weather. He pointed out that the staff of seven lifeguards could not have handled the many lessons, had not so many volunteers been on hand.

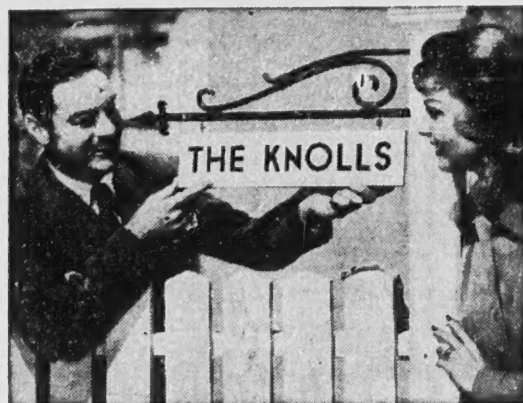

Language barriers also have been broken, he noted, by one volunteer who was able to teach a child to swim by translating the instructions into her native tongue.

WATER SAFE FOR SWIMMING

The results of the bacteria examination of a sample of water collected recently from Pomp's Pond, the public bathing beach area, by the Andover Board of Health, shows that the water was of suitable quality bacterially for public bathing.

David Ruf Was Baptized Here

At noon, Saturday, Aug. 5, David Alan Ruf, infant son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ruf Jr. of Reno, Nevada, was baptized at the Ballardvale United Church by the Rev. Orloff Miller of Hingham.

The occasion was followed by a family luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruf of Lowell Junction rd., Ballardvale, paternal grandparents, and Gustav Drauschke, paternal great-grandfather. Also attending were the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Carroll and maternal great grandmother, Mrs. Leelah Smith of Dalton. Other relatives attended from Ballardvale, Malden, Medford, Huntington and Pittsfield and the Rev. and Mrs. Orloff Miller and family from Hingham.

The marriage of the child's parents in 1956 was the first wedding ceremony performed by Mr. Miller. Mrs. Miller's father, the Rev. H. B. Williams was pastor of the Methodist Church of Ballardvale in 1927 and 1928.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ruf Jr. and David will continue to visit friends and relatives in the East before returning to Reno, where Dr. Ruf is on the faculty of the University of Nevada.

KFOURY-BRENNAN

Arrangements of white gladioli adorned the altar of St. Michael's Church in North Andover Saturday Aug. 5, when Miss Patricia Ann Brennan became the bride of Edward J. Kfoury of Andover.

Miss Brennan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Brennan of Great Pond rd., North Andover. Mr. Kfoury is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Kfoury of Highland rd.

The pastor, the Rev. William A. Long, officiated at the 12 o'clock Mass. Seated within the sanctuary were the Rev. John Jadaa and the Rev. Dimitri Nicholas of St. Basil's Seminary.

William Rock Jr., the bride's cousin, presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Frank Estle of North Andover.

Ushered to the altar by her father, the bride wore a pure white Italian silk gown, fashioned with a simple portrait neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Her dome-shaped skirt terminated in a chapel train. The short illusion veil fell from a wreath of imported French orange blossoms, and to complete her ensemble, she carried a cascade of white carnations, pale pink roses and ivy.

As maid of honor for her sister, Miss Susan Brennan of North Andover wore an afternoon frock of pale blue chiffon over taffeta, edged with blue satin at the waist and with a portrait neckline. She carried a cascade of blue Delphiniums, pink roses and trailing ivy.

The bridesmaids were Miss Martha Ellen Brennan of North Andover, sister of the bride; Miss Ellen Kfoury of Andover, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Adrienne Ferny of Newark, N.Y., and Miss Helen Parker of Claremont, N.H.

The bridesmaids were similarly attired and carried smaller cascades of blue delphinium, pink roses and ivy.

James Kfoury of Andover was best man for his brother. The ushers were Donald White of Haverhill, Frederick Kfoury Jr. of Manchester, N.H.; David Malone of Cambridge and Barry Hajjar of Methuen.

The bride's mother wore an Italian silk linen sheath in cafe-au-lait with matching accessories, and a green orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a peach chiffon sheath with matching accessories and cymbidium orchids.

The couple received their guests at a reception at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip to Cape Cod and Nantucket, the new home will be South Bend, Indiana.

The bride is a graduate of Abbot Academy and Wheelock College, class of 1961.

Mr. Kfoury, a graduate of the University of Notre Dame, class of 1960, is affiliated with the University's athletic department.

Wadsworth of Amsterdam, N.Y., was united in marriage to Raymond Paolino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Paolino of Lovejoy rd. The Rev. Frederick W. Vogell officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her step-father and she wore a ballerina length gown of silk organza with fingertip veil of silk illusion attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a white orchid on a Bible.

Miss Paulette Rytel, sister of the bride and only attendant, wore a lilac nylon gown and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and yellow roses.

Robert A. Kessler of Newark, N.J., was best man and Lawrence Paolino, brother of the bridegroom, was an usher.

After the ceremony a dinner was served to the family and close friends of the couple.

The couple left on a trip to New York City and on their return they will reside in Albany, N.Y.

The bride is a graduate of Waterford High School, Waterford, N.Y., and has been working in the Department of Management Engineering at the Rensselaer Institute, Troy, N.Y.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Andover High School and was graduated, last June with honors, from the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N.Y. He is employed by the New York State Department of Commerce.

RESTORING THE BANK - The Pacella Construction Co. equipment continued to work on the trunk sewer line this week. In this photo, some of the firm's equipment is re-gardening a bank along the route, off Stevens st. The chunks of material so evident in the photo represented a lot of headaches for the firm, as it has to be blasted out of the way when the line was installed. (Staff photo)

Dear friends,

Among the refinements which have come into our profession in recent years is the cemetery tent. Grave services are now sheltered when weather is inclement.

Green covering is also provided for the earth mound, and we need not tell you how much this tends to soften the final service.

Years ago such features were unknown. Now they are simply a part of our regular service.

Respectfully,

Donald E. Grundgren

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

The People's Best Interest

There's been a lot of talk about a special election to fill the House seat vacated by Frank Giles of Methuen - but thus far there has been no action towards calling the election.

This step must be taken by the speaker of the House, and proper dates must be set, allowing possible candidates enough time to take out papers for the special primary that must precede the election.

The scramble to announce candidacies has almost overshadowed the possibility that the special election might not be called at all - that the seat might be left open until the regular election in November, 1962.

Some observers believe this would be a better course of action, on two grounds:

A special primary and election is costly to the four communities involved.

A successful candidate in a special primary and election many times is actually a minority candidate - the man who has the best organizational ability within his party, to get out a strong block of votes. Sometimes, it is said, such a candidate would not make the grade, if he ran in the regular primary and election, when the vote is heavier.

While this latter reason is an indictment of those who fail to cast their ballots in all elections, it is also a fact. So few party members bother to vote in a special primary that a man with strong organization can be nominated with only a minority support.

We don't necessarily subscribe to the two reasons cited - but they do give us reason to think a little about the subject.

The Republicans may feel that it is essential to hold the primary and election, so that Gov. Volpe can have all possible support in the Democratically-controlled Legislature.

Democrats probably are hopeful that they can elect another candidate, to add to the majority in the House.

But will all of the people be best served in the process?

That's the overriding question; the question that should receive prime consideration by the speaker of the House before he takes action.

Scepticism Is Prevalent

Since the release last week of the town-wide survey results, it has been interesting to note the scepticism with which the conclusions have been received in some quarters.

As far as we know, the survey was distributed according to the formula announced by the League of Women Voters - one questionnaire to every third home, taken from the 1960 street list. About half of those receiving the document answered it.

Statisticians claim that the results offer a fairly accurate picture of what the entire town thinks.

And unless there is compelling evidence to the contrary, we think the results can be used as a guide when considering what the townspeople think about a specific subject.

We mention the sceptical attitude which greeted the report because it seems so symptomatic of the times.

It isn't just the survey that gets this tongue-in-cheek reception; almost everything that is done by public officials, boards or semi-public organizations is treated the same way. Many people hunt for underlying motives, never accepting the possibility that some specific deed or statement may be taken at face value.

It seems to us that the word "trust" has gone out of style with many people - they look for devious reasons for every action.

We'd prefer, for our own part, to accept other folks' statements and actions at face value, unless it can be shown that there is actually some reason to do otherwise.

Emergency System Needed

Emergency telephones on major highways are becoming more necessary all the time - but there seems to be little activity towards planning for their installation.

This is not the fault of the Telephone Co., nor of local officials.

Rather, it is a problem that the state and federal governments must work out jointly.

While most thinking people agree that emergency communications are needed, and badly so, they can not reach agreement on how they shall be provided.

The major question seems to be a question of safety - where can phones be installed, so that motorists can safely halt their vehicles to use them? The high-speed thru-ways certainly would become less safe, if cars stop on the paved way so the drivers can telephone. But telephone wires are most easily installed from bridges or other areas close to the highway, where domestic lines already exist.

We feel that it has now become evident that solutions must be found. Police here are getting calls from motorists concerning accidents on Route 93, which properly should be made to other communities. On one occasion cruisers from three towns were hunting for an accident somewhere on Route 93 - all because the motorists reporting the difficulty don't know just where they were.

Telephones or the direct citizen's alarm telephone system, would reduce the chance that accidents will be reported to the wrong town. They would, on the other hand, speed up the response - thus probably saving lives or more serious injury.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago - August, 1911

E. V. Lovely has been appointed instructor of science and athletics at the Punchard school.

Leonard Saunders of Smith and Manning's store is enjoying his annual vacation of two weeks.

Miss Margaret Ledwell and Mrs. Donald Houston of Chicago visited relatives in town last week.

Andrew Collins of Valpey's Market is spending his vacation in New York City.

The New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. has a big gang of men at work this week placing their wires on Main st. underground.

Mrs. Winslow Goodwin of Winsted, Conn., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Saunders of High st., has returned home. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Annie S. Alley and her two children, Frank and Mary.

Prof. and Mrs. M. S. McCurdy are back in Andover after a year spent in travel.

The tax rate has been announced as $16.50. For the first time, the town's valuation has gone over seven million, to $7,007,500. The gain was sufficient to make up for the slight increase in appropriations.

25 Years Ago - August, 1936

One of the most serious thunderstorms in many years struck the town with fury about 5 Tuesday evening. Lightning started a fire in one house, damaged another and smashed the flag pole on top of the town hall. Many tree limbs were also down. The lightning hit the bank alarm system and followed the wires into the police station, where it knocked officer David Gillespie off his chair. He was, however, unhurt.

A state police car, that can be converted to ambulance use in three minutes, will be garaged at the barracks to help local communities. The state has purchased 30 of these vehicles for use in sections of the state.

Fire of suspicious origin was quickly put out at the BPW garage on Lewis st. Monday evening after it had burned a hole in one wall. The state fire marshal will investigate.

The federal circus brought 2,000 interested spectators to the Central Playground last Friday. The performance was varied and interesting, combining many of the acts normally found in the circus. The troupe is composed of unemployed performers, under the sponsorship of the WPA.

10 Years Ago - August, 1957

Four persons were rescued from Haggett's Pond Sunday evening, after the plane they tried to land on the Pond nosed in and sank. The couples came from Newton and West Acton. Fishermen on the Pond pulled the four to safety and the two women were later held at the Lawrence General Hospital for treatment. Their husbands were released. They explained that, on their way to Bedford, after a day in Maine, they wished to wash off the salt that had remained on the plane.

A Ballardvale youth drowned in the Shawheen River last Wednesday evening, while swimming with a group of boys. They had been playing ball, then went for a swim in a favorite swimming hole that, in most places, is only waist-deep.

Three are hospitalized, two with serious injuries, after a bus-car collision on South Main st., near County rd. Tuesday evening. Both vehicles were headed south and the crash happened as the bus was about to stop to discharge passengers. None of the 38 on board the bus were hurt.

The Red Cross is gratified by the response to its appeal for $800 to help the flood-stricken persons in the middle west. Residents have given all but $50 of the amount to date. Some 25,000 families have applied to the Red Cross for help following the floods.

At The Library

Coming Events:

AUGUST

12 Library closed Saturday.
16 Story hour for all boys and girls in the Children's room, 10:15 a.m.

Register Now

Pre-registration is now going on for Littlest Listeners who plan to attend the groups which will meet in the fall. Mothers are urged to enter the name, age, probable school to which the child will go in the future, etc. as soon as possible, either in the Children's Room, or in the adult department.

Because of the growth in numbers, there are two groups which meet at the main library, and another in the branch library at Ballardvale.

Through this early registration of all children who will fall in the age group of three and older by fall, the library is able to suggest which of the divisions will be more convenient, in case mothers of one locality wish to share driving the children to the meetings. It allows the library to do some planning and make up the tags in advance of the first day program.

Summer Hours

Both Children's room and the adult reading room will remain closed on Saturdays throughout August, and through Sept. 12. Adult open hours Monday through Friday are as usual, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. The children's hours are 10 a.m. to 12, and 2-5 p.m.

Required Reading

The library has set aside a number of books which appear on the required reading list for students entering grades 11 and 12 this fall. These books may not be taken on the summer loan, and those who are making use of them are asked to have them back in the usual three weeks, without renewals. Lists may be seen at the desk.

Staff On Vacation

Miss Margaret Lane, Miss Margaret Manning, Mrs. Constance Smyth and Mrs. Shirley Ackerman of the library staff are enjoying their annual vacation.

Story Hour

The story hour for Wednesday morning, Aug. 16, will be on the theme of "Beasts." Among the stories to be told will be "Three Little Pigs and the Ogre," "How The Rhinoceros Got His Skin," "Race Between the Hare and the Hedgehog," "Anatole" and "The Fox Cub." Story hours will continue through August. They begin promptly at 10:15 o'clock in the Children's room of the library.

More and more children are finding the pleasure that there is in listening to well told stories, some old and some new.

All are most cordially invited to attend.

Going Down!

According to archaeologists, the years since World War II have been among the most fruitful in history for exploration and new findings. The Dead Sea Scrolls have made archaeology a popular subject for readers, and from this they go on into older books in the field.

Kurt Marek's "Gods, Graves and Scholars" and Geoffrey Bibby's "Testimony Of The Spade", both best sellers a number of years ago, are still widely read. Both books introduce the reader to archaeologists whose discoveries have led the way into the past. Books which trace human origins from earliest times include "Back Of History" by William Howells; "The March of Archaeology" by Kurt Marek; "Meet Your Ancestors" by Roy Chapman Andrews.

The life and culture of ancient people, as revealed by the excavation of long-lost cities, relics and artifacts, may be found in such books as Ivar Lissner's "Living Past", Hermann Schreiber's "Vanished Cities", Kurt Marek's "The Secret Of The Hittites", Carl Coon's "The Seven Caves" and Mary Chubb's "City In The Sand."

Discoveries in North America are written up in "Digging Up America", by Frank Hibben, "Hidden America" by Roland Robbins, "Treasure In The Dust", also by Frank Hibben, and Kenneth MacGowan's "Early Man In The New World."

Two other books not to be overlooked are Paul Iton's "The Bible Was My Treasure Map" and Philippe Dirole's "4,000 Years Under The Sea", contributions made to archaeology by the discovery and exploration of sunken ships and the study of objects retrieved from the sea floor. All books listed here may be found at the Memorial Hall Library.

PLANNING FASHION SHOW - Members of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority are planning a fall fashion show. Meeting to discuss the affair were Mrs. Richard Homewood, president; Mrs. David Roberts, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Kitson, chairman of the fashion show; Mrs. Ralph Wirtz, table decorations chairman; and Mrs. Frederick Anderson, assistant. (Leone)

Sorority Plans Several Events

While individual Beta Sigma Phi members are enjoying summer vacations, the Sorority as a whole never lies idle.

Through the summer, representatives of the Andover group have been quite busy. Earlier in the summer Mrs. Richard Homewood, president, accompanied by Mrs. Ian Sanderson, treasurer, attended the annual New England Convention of Beta Sigma Phi chapters at Kennebunkport, Me.

Chapter members enjoyed having a booth at the Sidewalk Bazaar, sponsored by the Andover Board of Trade. On the light side, the group and their husbands enjoyed a New England Clambake at Crane's Beach and on the business side, there has already been a Board meeting to formulate plans for the coming year.

Mrs. Robert Kitson held a "Coffee" at her home and plans were completed for the Annual Fall Fashion Show, to be held Sept. 27 at 8 at the Andover Country Club. In cooperation with a North Shore Specialty Shop, fashions will be modeled by Sorority members. Miss Charlotte Barker, well-known model, fashion commentator and lecturer has been engaged to commentate. Assisting Mrs. Kitson, who is chairman of the affair, are Mrs. David Roberts and Mrs. Frederick Anderson. Mrs. Ralph Wirtz will arrange table decorations and Mrs. Luis Salazar will arrange other decorations. Mrs. Lester T. Newill is publicity chairman.

Although February still seems to be very far off, the Heart Dance Committee of the Sorority has also met and plans were formulated for the annual event which has become a highlight of the Greater Lawrence winter social season. Co-chairmen of the Dance are Mrs. Howard Bond and Mrs. Richard Clukey; Decorations, Mrs. Ralph Wirtz; Tickets, Mrs. Louis Peterson; Door Prizes, Mrs. Lester T. Newill; Treasurer, Mrs. David Roberts; Publicity, Mrs. George Ainscow.

RETURNS FROM TRIP TO WASHINGTON STATE

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sherry and Janet and Colin, have returned from a trip to Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Sherry and Colin have been gone a month, flying out there. Mr. Sherry and Janet joined them two weeks later. Their daughter, Lucille, and a friend, Caroline Gehres, returned with them. The return trip was made by auto stopping at all the places of interest including Yellowstone Park.

Four Bicycles Have Been Recovered

Four bicycles - two in relatively new condition - were pulled out of the Shawsheen River Tuesday morning by Sgt. Robert Deyermund and police department workman Ralph Sharpe.

The bikes had been under water at the dam on Stevens St., but became visible when the water level was lowered. Mr. Sharpe used a long line with a hook to reach the bikes, pulling them up onto the bridge.

Your Friends and Neighbors Like To SHOP CO-OP

MRS. WINTHROP NEWCOMB
193 Chestnut St., Andover

Mrs. Winthrop Newcomb is one of many hundreds of local home makers who like to shop at the Andover CO-OP. This is what Mrs. Newcomb says:

"I like to SHOP CO-OP because: The CO-OP is handy to everything. When I go marketing, I am also apt to stop at the post office, bank, the drug or hardware store. I like the fact that the CO-OP is so convenient to so many other places where I have errands to do. I like the courteous and friendly service I always receive."

The above is one customer's reason for marketing at our store. There are other reasons which appeal to other people.

What are YOU looking for at your source of supply for groceries? The chances are that we have it in abundance.

Obituaries...

MRS. HARRIET E. MARSH

Mrs. Harriet E. (Buckham) Marsh, 87, 151 Chestnut st., widow of Edward F. Marsh, died Saturday evening, Aug. 5, at the Sheltering Arms Nursing Home in North Andover, following a long illness. Mrs. Marsh was born in Nashua, N.H., and had been a resident of Andover for 30 years.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Ruth E. Dunn, with whom she made her home; two granddaughters, Jacqueline, wife of Glenn Andrews of Needham and Maroy, wife of Kit Patrick of East Douglas and four great grandchildren.

The funeral was held Tuesday, with services at 2:30 p.m. at Woodlawn Cemetery, Nashua, N.H., where burial took place.

MISS ETHEL HUMPHREYS

Miss Ethel Humphreys, 77, a resident of Andover for many years, died July 14 at her home in Winter Park, Fla.

Miss Humphreys had been secretary of the Episcopal Church in Winter Park for several years. She was, at one time, organist and choir mother at Christ Church. A graduate of Smith College class of 1907, Miss Humphreys formerly lived with her family at 66 Central st., and later at 10 Wolcott ave. Her father, the late C. J. Russell Humphreys, was associated with the Lawrence Gas Co. in executive capacities.

Surviving are Mrs. R. Garretson Humphreys, a sister, Mrs. Harry E. Speed of Winter Park, Fla. and a brother, Irving Z. Humphreys of McColl, S.C.

Funeral services were held in Winter Park July 17.

ROBERT A. STACK

Robert A. Stack, 65, 20 Summer st., died late Monday afternoon at the Lawrence General Hospital, after a year's illness.

Born in Andover Jan. 15, 1896, Mr. Stack always made his home here. He had been employed for the past 19 years at the Davis and Furber Machine Co. in North Andover. He attended St. Augustine's Church and was a member and past commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2128.

Surviving are three sisters, Miss Eunice G. Stack, Miss Alice C. Stack and Mrs. M. Rita Cronin, all teachers in the Andover school system; a brother W. Richard Stack of Culver City, Cal.; also several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held today from the Lane Funeral Home, with a high Mass of Requiem at St. Augustine's Church at 9 a. m. Burial will be in St. Augustine's Cemetery.

FULL ECLIPSE OF THE MOON

If you'd rather wait for a completely total lunar eclipse, then mark June 24, 1964 on your calendar. That's when the next one to be seen in New England is due.

According to the Planetarium, we have an eclipse of the moon whenever the moon gets into the earth's shadow. Neither the earth nor the moon gives off any light of its own, but shines by reflecting the light of the sun. Like any solid body held up to the light, they cast shadows in the opposite direction. Usually, when the moon is full it passes either just above or just below the shadow of the earth. But every once in a while conditions are just right, and it passes into the shadow. When it goes all the way in, we have a total eclipse of the moon; when it goes only partially in (as in this eclipse), we have a partial eclipse of the moon. Once the moon is in the earth's shadow, of course, no direct light can reach it, and it ceases to shine brightly.

Even when the moon is totally eclipsed, it usually shines with a coppery red glow. This is because sunlight, which contains all the colors of the rainbow, passes through the earth's atmosphere and is bent, (or refracted), into the earth's shadow. Just as at sunset time, the blue light is scattered, but the long wave length red light has more power to penetrate the earth's atmosphere and illuminate the surface of the eclipsed moon. Completely black eclipses have been recorded, but they are rare.

The ancients, who did not understand the causes of eclipses, were often mystified and even terrified by them. The Chinese used to think that a great celestial dragon was devouring their moon, and since they used the moon as a means of reckoning time, this was a frightening event. They would set off firecrackers and make a great deal of noise to see if they could scare the dragon into giving the moon back!

"Project Moon," the current program at the Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science, includes a lunar eclipse. Like time-lapse photography, the Planetarium eclipse shows the entire sequence in a matter of minutes rather than hours.

Father, Son Had Birthdays

A double birthday celebration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills Jr. of River st., Ballardvale, honoring the birthdays of Mr. Mills and his son, John Warren. The event was in the form of a cookout and featured a birthday cake made by Mrs. Mills. Both celebrants were presented with gifts and cards.

Community singing was enjoyed, with musical accompaniment by Leo Pimpare and Mr. Mills.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brouck and daughter, Sandra, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pimpare and son, Leo J. Jr.; Richard Davison, Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Haggerty and daughter, Nancy; Lin Peterson, Mrs. Theodore Milewicz and daughter, Sandra; Laurie Mullett, Cameron Edward, Lee, Henry and Jessie Mills, Clyde White, John Flint and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills Jr.

Mrs. Richard Woodhead and son have returned to their home in Connecticut after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Tewksbury st.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Cook and sons, David and Dana, and daughter, Sandra, of Ottawa, Kansas, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dustin and family of Woburn st., Ballardvale.

If you desire to object thereto you or your attorney should file a written appearance in said Court at Salem before ten o'clock in the forenoon on the fifth day of September 1961, the return day of this citation.

Witness, JOHN V. PHELAN, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twenty-seventh day of July 1961.

JOHN J. COSTELLO, Register.

END PROGRAM
AT STATE FOREST

leased from some of their duties Tuesday, the girls enjoyed cooking their own meal over a blazing camp fire. Program aides for the final week of Camp Harold Parker included Ellen McKendry, Doreen Ingalls and Sheila Murphy of North Reading; Suzanne Steward, Sandra Beaton, Linnea Willman and Priscilla Johnson of Reading; and Mary Lou Carr, Barbara Musen, Carolyn Conroy and Lynne Ellen Campbell of Andover. Miss Nancy Campbell of Andover served as a junior counselor.

Also Tuesday, Aug. 1, a waterfront demonstration was held during the closing circle. Boating instructions and general safety rules were reviewed. Demonstrations of artificial respiration and mouth-to-mouth breathing methods were given as well as a life-saving exhibition. The waterfront staff was headed by Mrs. William Westphal of Andover, director, and Mrs. Herbert Erickson of North Reading, assistant director. Actively assisting the daily classes were the following program aides: Suzanne Steward, Ellen McKendry and Mary Lou Carr.

During the four weeks that Camp Harold Parker operated, the following girls received their beginner's certificates: Donna Kayser, Marilyn Maxwell, Pamela Sheehan, Kathy Swyer, Romayne Zenoby, Karen Leslie, Laren Bulley, Pamela Steward, Nanette Beaucher, Edith DeBolt, Barbara Lawson, Kathy Cormier, Janet Swain, Mardi Mueller, Susan Hammer, Susan Cox, Judith Clark, Denise Pantos, Katherine Foley, Sharon Joseph, Cynthia Swim, Ruthanne Haggerty, Sue Ann Otto, Deborah Durham, Lee Marchand, Elaine Little, Susan Westphal, Cynthia Westphal, Karen Evangelos, Beverly Haefling, Judy Rideout, Lynne Bacon, Joanne Doughty, Jennifer Priestly and Deborah Barra. Robert Haggerty, son of one of the counselors, also received his beginner's certificate.

Intermediate swimming certificates were awarded to Laurie Foster, Jane Woodworth, Sheila Prout, Peggy Guedet and Janet Campbell. Ellen McKendry and Karen Mears received their coveted swimmer certificates.

During the Grand Council Fire, the following archery awards were presented: Unit 7, best daily score, Janet Campbell; biggest scoring improvement, Carol Dennis and Janet Swyer; marked improvement, Janice Crockett, Ruthanne Haggerty, Marilyn Phillips, Cynthia Swim, Kathleen Cormier, Kathleen Schwede, Linda Tobey, Joanne Cecil, Janice Norris, Janet Avery, and Patricia Clark; Unit 8, best daily score, Karen Hagen, best weekly score, Gail Lacascia; marked improvement, Kathleen Feeley, Georgia Cecil, Andrea Mooney, Christine Doughty and Deborah Edmonds; program aides, best daily score, Barbara Musen and Linnea Willman; best total score, Linnea Willman; and marked improvement, Lynne Campbell, Carolyn Conroy, Sandra Beaton and Doreen Ingalls.

The camp choir, under the direction of Miss Nancy Campbell, junior counselor and Ellen McKendry, program aide, made its first appearance at the Grand Council Fire. The girls sang "The Ash Grove", "Swinging Along" and "Zum-Gali-Gali" in two part harmony. As this is a new feature of the Camp Harold Parker program, it was interesting to listen to the favorable comments from the parents and friends that attended the closing exercises. The following girls were members of the camp choir: Deborah Edmonds, Janice Crockett, Marilyn Phillips, Kristin Nelson, Ruthanne Haggerty, Linda Tobey, Deborah Barra, Rhonda McKendry, Pamela Steward, Sheila Prout, Lynne Bacon, Susan Hammer, Carol Mooney, Lynne Himmer, Susan Cox, Susan Westphal, Regina Blakely, Judy Rideout, Paula from the community.

REMOVING GRAVEL

Even as they acted in the current situation, the Board indicated that it is aware of the problems coming up when Route 495 construction gets to Shawheen. A giant filling job must be undertaken there, as the road overpasses Union st. and the railroad tracks. Rather than bridging the area, the plans currently call for many feet of fill for the area.

EASY READING - The Library has its new microfilm reader in use, enabling users to easily read many old town records now preserved on the film. Miss Miriam Putnam, seated, librarian, is discussing use of the reader with, left, John W. Kimball of the Historical Society and, right, F. Schuyler Royce Jr., representing the adult evening study group at Phillips Academy, which donated money for the purchase of the machine. The Historical Society, in cooperation with the North Andover Society, did the microfilming. (Staff photo)

Completing List For Church Book

Final arrangements are now being completed for the sponsor list for the commemorative events of the 250th Anniversary of South Church, to take place in October. This list will appear in a special section of a program-type booklet to be distributed to the church members. Under the direction of Mrs. Jason Wright, the booklet will be about 16 pages long and contain the program, a brief history, recent photographs of the church, and the sponsor list.

The sponsor list will be completed Aug. 15 and will go to the printers shortly thereafter. The committee working on this list included Mrs. Richard H. Moody, chairman, Mrs. Gilbert Cromie, Mrs. Thomas Dye, Mrs. George Haselton, Mrs. Malcom McTernan, Mrs. Herbert Orstein, Mrs. Richard Roberson, Mrs. Phillip Ryder and Mrs. Howard Tyrell.
